

Welcome to the May edition of the Bruce Thiele Red Wine Club newsletter.

As the weather turns colder our thoughts turn to warming reds, luscious fortifieds, lamb shanks and puddings.

For the May event we weren't disappointed as Winter Creek Wines showed us their magnificent suite of wines at the Barossa Junction.

While we grazed on spring rolls, meat balls, samosas, dim sims, cheeses and dips some Sparkling Chardonnay Pinot Noir cleansed our palate in preparation for more Winter Creek Wines.

Dean, Jeff, Ian and Peter talk with Pam Cross

Proprietor Pam Cross presented a structured tasting of the fine wines of the Southern Barossa. Pam explained that to enhance the range, fruit is also sourced from the Adelaide Hills and Eden Valley. To demonstrate the wisdom Pam showed some superb Eden Valley Riesling and Adelaide Hills Sauvignon Blanc. These medal winning whites were followed by "The Old Barossa Blend", the Southern Barossa Shiraz and the flagship Saint Urban Barossa Shiraz, all medal winners in their own right.

Fortifieds followed with a unique Fortified Riesling named "The Jazzie" after Pam's granddaughter. "The Sommelier" a superb Tawny blended with material averaging 25 years was served with dessert followed by a youthful 06 vintage Shiraz.

Two door prizes were drawn and it proved to be Simon Granfield's night, taking home a triple gift pack of Winter Creek Wines while Tony Impett grabbed bottle of "The Old Barossa blend"
